Turnstone Receives Grant from Million Dollar Round Table Foundation

(June 16, 2017) — The Million Dollar Round Table Foundation (MDRT Foundation) has awarded a $25,000 grant to Turnstone Center for Children and Adults with Disabilities. Turnstone provides therapeutic, educational, wellness, sports and recreational programs to empower people with disabilities. Turnstone's expertise and well-rounded services are necessary, valued and make a significant impact on the community

Through its global grants programs, the MDRT Foundation is committed to building stronger families and communities around the globe. This year, the MDRT Foundation will award over $1 million in MDRT member-endorsed grants to more than 200 charitable organizations worldwide. Representing the MDRT Foundation, Mike Findley, President of Findley Financial Corporation, presented this grant to Turnstone on June 15, 2017 at the agency's annual Board of Directors' Gala.

The MDRT Quality of Life award will benefit Turnstone's Adaptive Sports and Recreation program. This program provides social and recreational opportunities for youth, adults and veterans with physical disabilities and their families. According to Mike Mushett, Turnstone CEO, "The availability of programming such as Turnstone's is vital for our community. Adaptive sports changes lives. Those who participate are more involved in the community, more independent, more likely to travel and have more self-confidence."

About the MDRT Foundation:

The MDRT Foundation was created in 1959 to provide MDRT members with a means to give back to their communities. Since its inception, the Foundation has donated more than $30 million in more than 70 countries throughout the world and in all 50 U.S. states. These funds were raised by MDRT members and industry partners. For more information, visit mdrtfoundation.org.
